

Year 12

Subject: Geography

YEAR 12 AND 13

Paper 1 30% of the A level qualification 2.15 hour exam	Dynamic Landscapes Unit 1: Tectonic Processes and Hazards                  Unit 2: Glaciated Landscapes and Change                  Unit 3: World of Water, Water Supply and Water Insecurity                  Unit 4: World of Carbon, Energy Supply and Insecurity, Climate Change. Year 12 Through the familiar study of Tectonics and the new area of Ice and Glaciation students will look at distribution, processes, landforms and human impact using a wide variety of geographical skills. Year 13 Water examines the distribution of the contested resource and physical processes that determine it. Locations with water scarcity such as California, East Africa and Northern China are studied. Water and river management	Paper 2 30% of the A level qualification 2.15 hour exam	Dynamic Places Unit 1: Globalisation                  Unit 2: Regenerating Places                  Unit 3: Superpowers                  Unit 4: Global Development and Connections Year 12 Globalisation examines places becoming more linked and inter-connected, with a focus on the economic and political processes driving change. Regeneration examines the changing urban landscape, using London King’s Cross and Stratford as key examples. Year 13 Superpowers examines how nations, companies and organisations sphere of influence have changed through time and the geo-political implications of this. Contested resources and places such as the Arctic and Middle East. Global Development will focus on inequalities around the world to include health and human
--	---	--	---

HIGHGATE WOOD SCHOOL: CURRICULUM MAP FOR KEY STAGE 5

	across international boundaries will be evaluated. Carbon and energy security is the final unit with focus on the current and future energy mix for contrasting countries.		rights. Finally, a range of interventions such as aid, finance and military will be evaluated.
Paper 3 20% of the A level qualification 2.15 hour exam	This contains three synoptic themes within the compulsory content areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Players</li> <li>● Attitudes and actions</li> <li>● Futures and uncertainties</li> <li>● The synoptic investigation will be based on a geographical issue.</li> </ul>	Paper 4 20% of the A level qualification	Independent investigation. Your own investigation and write up into an area covered in the 4 days of fieldwork provided through the course. There will be a residential field trip.