Spaced repetition vs massed practise

- You will notice that the revision timetable is mostly in half hour slots
- Half an hour on, for example, Spanish followed by half an hour on maths etc is called 'spaced repetition'
- Massed practise is the opposite to this and is not an effective way to learn

TOP TIPS FOR REVISION

1. Plan ahead

- Planning is one of the most important parts of revision. You want to be under as little stress as possible come exam day.
- Planning also allows you to revise multiple subjects in one day, which is crucial when the exam season rolls around. You don't want to realise that you've only focused on your essay based exams and done nothing for your science exams.

TOP TIPS FOR REVISION

2. Schedule your day

- One of the best ways to make sure you actually start revising is to have a plan in place. Although you'll have time during school hours, you'll need to study outside of school hours too. Planning your revision methods as well as what subject area you'll cover helps you to get everything you'll need to revise ahead of time

3. Take breaks

- If you've started early in the revision period, this one will be easier than if you're only getting started right as your exam dates approach, but that doesn't mean it isn't still really important. Splitting up your study time with breaks is essential, so plan them into your revision timetable.

4. Revision cards

- Of all the revision techniques out there, you'll hear this one frequently. Revision cards use keywords or questions to test your knowledge. To keep each subject separate and avoid confusion, use different colours for different subjects. If you don't have coloured card to hand, trying using post-it notes.

6. Do Past Papers

- This is one of the most important and normally underrated methods there is! Content, themes and even sometimes questions get repeated. By doing every exam paper available to you, you have not only tested your exam technique and noticed any gaps in your knowledge, but you have also potentially help your future self by learning the answer to a question which may come up again.
- It's an invaluable resource available to students for free on the exam board website, and really cannot be understated!

TOP TIPS FOR REVISION

7. Revision Clocks

Spend time, recalling/revising, testing and reviewing.

TOP TIPS FOR REVISION

8. Sleep and Eating

None of the revision techniques mentioned above is effective without enough sleep. Sleep won't only consolidate into memory what you've been learning, but it'll put you in a better mood, make you feel more motivated and improve your cognitive performance. Aim for 7 to 9 hours each night.

Your brain needs fuel!

Assessment and Reporting

Latest Report – Summer 2023

- Satchel One

The logo for Satchel One is displayed on a dark blue rectangular background. The word "satchel:" is written in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font. Below it, the word "one" is written in a larger, lowercase, sans-serif font, with each letter in a different color: the 'o' is light blue, the 'n' is yellow, and the 'e' is orange-red.

Forecast GCSE Grade

This is a professional judgement, made by subject teachers, of the grade a student is likely to achieve in their subject in their GCSE if they continue to work at their current rate. Teachers consider all the assessed pieces of work completed by a student over the term(s) to inform these holistic forecast grades. The forecast grade should in no way be seen as fixed, or a 'cap' to achievement. Students can always improve their performance if they seek out challenges, put in the necessary effort, act on their feedback from their teachers and continually try to improve. Where students are not on track, the school will intervene in some way to support improvement.

Minimum Expected GCSE Grade (MEG)

This is the minimum grade a student is expected to achieve at GCSE for all subjects. These are set using your child's baseline data. We would normally use Key Stage 2 scaled scores as the baseline for our target setting model. Your child did not complete Key Stage 2 SATs so did not get a scaled score (due to Covid). In the absence of this data we have used in-house testing, data from previous school cohorts and national data trends to produce what we believe to be comparable minimum expected GCSE grades for our students.

Although our projected outcomes are aspirational, we treat these grades a minimum expectation rather than a 'target' and expect that with high quality teaching and learning, our students should be able to meet and, in many cases, exceed them. Most students at HWS do achieve or exceed these minimum expected grades.

What are Non-Examined Assessments and when are they?

- Very few subjects have NEAs (previously called controlled assessments / coursework) now
- They are internally assessed
- They take place throughout the next year and a half depending on subject
- They take place in school

- Please note: No Geography NEA

1. Art (40% ESA)
2. Drama (Coursework)
3. Media (30% NEA)
4. Music (composition and performance elements)
5. PE (NEA)
6. Child Development (6 Formal Controlled Assessments)
- ~~7. Geography~~

SATCHEL ONE = ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW

- Parental Log-in.
- Home Learning is set on there, you can track/help with organisation.
- Inform you of all the positives and any areas of concerns.
- Please make sure you are using regularly. If your child says they don't have home learning this is likely to be incorrect

HOME LEARNING

- Home Learning for Year 11 should take around 15 hours per week to complete and will be set once a week for all subjects on Satchel One.
- The 15 hours a week should include both specific home learning tasks and revision activities. This works out at about 2 hours per day.
- Students leave school at 2.55pm, complete during 4pm – 6pm, time to also get exercise, sleep and time with you!
- Revision should be an ongoing, set in small pieces, not only set just before exams; a “marathon not a sprint”

The logo for Satchel One is located in the bottom right corner. It consists of the word "satchel:" in white lowercase letters on a dark blue square background. Below "satchel:" is the word "one" in a larger font, with the letter "o" in light blue, "n" in yellow, and "e" in red.
