

School Counsellor x 2 – 0.6 (3 days)

Salary Scale: SO1

For a September 2021 start, at Highgate Wood School, we are looking to recruit two School Counselors on 0.6 (3 days) to provide a counselling service to students and staff at Highgate Wood School. The role will provide counselling services on an individual basis, drop-in sessions, group sessions and will be pro-active in the School's commitment to student and staff wellbeing.

We are seeking to appoint two enthusiastic and capable Counsellors, to be a part of our inclusion team, working with a caseload of students with a wide range of social, emotional, and mental health needs. This role is demanding and challenging, but very rewarding. The role will also involve developing training initiatives for staff and promoting the counselling service within the school and events regarding emotional health and wellbeing for students and staff.

The successful candidates will hold a professional diploma in Counselling and be registered with UKCP or accredited by BACP. Experience of working with young people or a school environment is preferred.
