Welcome to A Level Art

Now that you've decided to study Art at A Level, you'll need to do a bit of preparation. This pack contains information regarding the course structure, the summer project, suggested equipment list and websites to prepare you to start your A level in September.

The purpose of studying Art at A Level is to develop knowledge and understanding of:

- Specialist vocabulary and artist terminology when analysing or explaining your own and others' work*
- Theoretical research of a particular genre style and/or tradition*
- In-depth understanding of a variety of media, techniques and processes*
- Development of an idea, concept or issue*
- Recording ideas and observations related to chosen lines of enquiry*
- Communicating a particular meaning, message, idea or feeling*

What do I have to do in A Level Art?

There are two components of the course- the personal investigation and the externally set assignment. The table below summarises the evidence you will produce for each component:

A Level Components	What will I need to do?	How will I evidence this?
Personal Investigation (coursework) 60%	-Write a personal study (essay) based on your chosen theme -Create a body of work related to a chosen theme/s -Create a final piece/s	-A 1000-3000 word essay -Research on a range of artists and/or designers -Exploration of a variety of media, techniques and processes -Development of ideas in response to chosen artist/s/theme -Recording of ideas and observations
Externally Set Assignment (Exam) 40%	-Create preparatory studies based on the theme -Create a personal outcome/s in 15 hours of sustained focus	-By creating a body of work based on the theme given. This will include research, ideas, exploration of media, development of ideas and a final piece/s.

The table below summarises tasks you will need to do to meet each objective:

Development of Ideas	Exploration of Media	Recording & Reflecting	Personal Response
-Research a range of artists- collect images, make a visual study, include biographical information and analyse their artwork -Create your own ideas inspired by your chosen artist/s -Show a clear development of ideas- have they been manipulated, transformed and edited throughout the journey	-Explore with a wide variety of media, techniques and processes -Continually review and refine your work- consider the potential and the limitations of the media used	-Take own photographs related to chosen theme/idea -Create a range of observational studies from primary and secondary sources -Use annotation to explain your idea/s and to reflect on your progress	-A final piece plan to document intentions for final piece and explanation -A final piece/s that realises what you intended to do

What areas of Art & Design can I study?

The table below summarises the different types of design you can study:

Art, Craft & Design	Fine Art	Graphic Communication
This includes the exploration of 2D or 3D design.	This could include painting, drawing, printmaking, mixed media, ceramics, installation, moving image and sculpture.	This could include branding, information graphics, advertising, packaging design, interactive media, multimedia, motion graphics or illustration.
Textile Design	Three-Dimensional Design	Photography
This could include textiles for fine art, fashion or interior, costume design, digital textiles, printed and/or dyed fabrics, wallpaper or installed textiles.	This could include ceramics, sculpture, exhibition design, architectural design, product design, environmental design, design for theatre, jewellery/body ornament or spatial design.	This could include film, video, digital, photojournalism, moving image, documentary photograph, multimedia or film-based photography.

Where should I start?

You need to think about the following:

- What subject/ theme are you most passionate about?
- What is it about this subject that is interesting?
- What other avenues could this branch into?
- Will you be able to sustain this theme for a long period of time?
- Can you think of any particular artists that could relate to it?
- Are there any particular styles or techniques that you can explore with?
- Are there any current galleries, exhibitions or events that could be relevant?
- What places, objects or things could you collect or photograph?

Transition Project

Before enrolment, you will need to complete the following tasks:

- To select a theme you are passionate about- this could link to people, places, objects, natural world, environment etc.
- Visit a virtual gallery or exhibition* and document this- photos, drawing, notes, sketches, ticket etc.
- To collect images and take photographs related to your theme-whole images, sections, close up etc.
- Create a range of drawings and studies from these and life using a range of different materials and techniques-try as many different ones as possible!
- Find two artists that interest you- it could be their style, use of colour, materials they use etc. Document their work- a copy of their artwork, write some notes to explain it and include biographical information that is relevant.
- Create a variety of studies from your sources but now try them in the style of your chosen artists- consider the artists style, technique and use of media etc.
- Use notes/annotations to support your work so far- this could include explanations or reflections.

*Document your project in any format you wish- sketchbook, sheets, folder, concertina etc.
